The heart of the home is a spacious open-plan kitchen, dining and sitting room, creating a bright and sociable living space ideal for both everyday family life and entertaining. Large glazed openings provide an abundance of natural light while offering seamless access to the private garden, strengthening the connection between the interior and the surrounding landscape.

The accommodation includes a generous principal bedroom, together with two further well-proportioned bedrooms that provide flexibility for family living, guests or a home office. A modern family bathroom, additional cloakroom and separate utility room offer practical convenience and enhance the home's functionality.

Externally, the property enjoys a generous sized garden, dedicated parking and attractive views across the development and surrounding countryside.

Finished to a high specification throughout, Plot 3 has been designed with energy efficiency and modern living in mind while retaining the architectural character of its agricultural origins. The result is a stylish and comfortable home that successfully blends traditional barn aesthetics with contemporary design.
