Nestled in a sought after residential location and within walking distance of Easingwold's vibrant Market Place, this wonderful bungalow is offered to the open market for the first time since its construction in 1988.

Retaining its original kitchen and bathrooms, the property offers scope for modernisation and provides the perfect blank canvas for a purchaser to upgrade, replace and restyle these key areas to their own taste. A programme of redecoration throughout would further allow the new owner to put their own stamp on this exceptionally well positioned home.

A welcoming reception hall provides an inviting introduction to the property and leads through to an impressive 20' (6.10m) long sitting room centred around an attractive Adam style fireplace housing a coal effect gas fire, while a deep silled box bay window overlooks the front garden and provides the room with an abundance of natural light.

Double doors open from the sitting room into a formal dining room which connects directly with the kitchen (creating an excellent opportunity to rethink the arrangement of these adjoining spaces) with full length double glazed sliding doors leading out onto the patio.

The kitchen currently provides space for a small table, together with a range of original base and wall mounted storage cupboards a built-in gas hob, eye-level oven and grill along with further space for freestanding appliances.

For those seeking a more contemporary lifestyle, there is considerable potential to replace and restyle the existing kitchen or, subject to the necessary considerations and consents, open the kitchen and dining room to create a larger, light-filled dining kitchen with a more modern, sociable layout.

A useful rear lobby provides practical storage and access to the rear garden via a double glazed door.

The principal bedroom enjoys a pleasant outlook across the front garden and benefits from fitted wardrobes and a private en-suite bathroom with the original 1980's coloured suite providing an exciting opportunity to create a sophisticated contemporary shower room with the purchaser able to introduce their own preferred finishes, fittings and design.

The second bedroom is another well appointed double bedroom with fitted wardrobes and views over the rear garden while the third bedroom is currently arranged as a delightful study.

A separate house bathroom completes the principal accommodation and, like the en-suite, presents an opportunity for the incoming owner to update, enhance and restyle the space to their own personal requirements.

Further practical benefits include gas fired central heating and double glazing.

Externally, the property occupies an enviable corner plot and features 2 independent driveways that provide generous off road parking and access into a detached single brick built garage benefiting from both power and light.

The front garden is predominantly laid to lawn and provides an attractive setting and approach to the bungalow.

The rear garden has been thoughtfully landscaped to incorporate areas of lawn together with a split level paved seating terrace. An established fish pond adds an attractive focal point and further character to the garden. There are also 2 timber-built outbuildings, both of which are now in need of replacement.
