The Old Byre is a beautifully renovated barn conversion, transformed from top to bottom to create a stunning blend of character, style and modern living, all set within a charming village location.

Tucked away just off the main street and forming one half of a pair of converted barns, this exceptional home offers spacious and flexible accommodation arranged across a single level.

At the heart of the property is the impressive open plan living kitchen, thoughtfully designed for both everyday living and entertaining. The bespoke solid wood kitchen is complemented by quartz worktops, a central island and quality integrated appliances, while underfloor heating adds comfort and practicality. The living area features a vaulted ceiling with exposed beams, mood lighting and stone flooring with underfloor heating, creating a warm yet contemporary feel.

Further features include upgraded electrics throughout, wire for smart cctv, exposed timber beams, atmospheric lighting and a superb balance of original charm and high-quality modern finishes throughout.

The accommodation includes three versatile double bedrooms, allowing flexibility for guest accommodation, home working, additional reception space or cinema room if desired.

A stylish modern shower room has been beautifully appointed with a walk-in shower, vanity basin unit and WC.

Externally, the property continues to impress. A generous gravelled driveway provides ample off-street parking, while the landscaped courtyard garden offers a private and low maintenance outdoor retreat, ideal for relaxing or entertaining during the warmer months.

Ideal for professionals and downsizers this stunning home is set within the highly regarded village of Skirpenbeck which lies to the east of York and is well placed for access to both York and the market town of Pocklington. Surrounded by attractive countryside, the village enjoys a peaceful rural setting whilst remaining convenient for commuting and local amenities. The area is particularly well regarded for its scenic walks, cycling routes and easy access to the Yorkshire Wolds.
