Occupying a corner plot position fronting onto Aldwark, this property does require cosmetic improvement and modernisation, but offers a fantastic investment within a sought-after York community, within walking distance of the city centre. Beginning externally, there are twin storage cupboards located at the front of the property and along with a single allocated parking space to the rear.

On entry, through the hallway and into a well-proportioned living/dining area, with carpeted flooring and window/door opening out onto a charming rear courtyard. The courtyard garden is extensively flagged with surrounding walled boundaries and several planted beds. A timber-built storage shed is included and there is gated access from the courtyard through to the rear of the development. The living quarters also access a 'U' shaped kitchenette, equipped with freestanding appliances, wall and base units and wash hand basin, with window to the front aspect overlooking into Aldwark.

To the first floor, the original property was a one bedroom home, now split into two - with windows looking to the rear aspect, carpeted flooring and radiators to both rooms. Completing the accommodation is a modern three-piece bathroom featuring a walk-in shower, wash hand basin and w.c., with tiled splashbacks and fitted handrails.

Ideally positioned for access to York's historic city centre, the property is well placed for the wide range of shops, restaurants, cafés and cultural attractions the city has to offer. York railway station is also within convenient reach, providing excellent links to Leeds, London and other major destinations.
