£475,000

Within walking distance of the Knavesmire & York's racecourse, a period home requiring a programme of renovation on the highly regarded South Bank Avenue, offered for sale with no onward chain.

The property is now in need of an extensive programme of modernisation and refurbishment, making it an exciting prospect for buyers looking to create a home to their own specification. Retaining the character and proportions associated with properties of this period, the accommodation offers excellent potential to be transformed into a superb family home in one of York's most sought-after residential areas.

On entry, a long hallway leads off into two separate reception rooms; the living room with feature fireplace and box window sits to the front, with a separate dining room sitting in the middle of the home. The dining room feeds through to an open kitchen room with dual aspect windows and a door leading onto the rear courtyard. A utility is located off the open kitchen. Externally, the property benefits from a courtyard garden to the rear, offering a manageable outside space with further potential to enhance. The courtyard access a store off the rear.

To the first floor, are three bedrooms and the house bathroom. The first and second bedroom are both double in size with bathroom is a practical three-piece suite with walk-in shower.

South Bank Avenue enjoys a desirable position within the popular South Bank area of York, well placed for access to the city centre and the many amenities the surrounding area has to offer. Parking is available on-street with the use of a parking permit.

Offered with no onward chain, this is a rare opportunity for purchasers seeking a substantial renovation project in an established and highly regarded York location.
