A beautifully presented and extensively upgraded home, discreetly positioned within a desirable cul-de-sac in the heart of Riccall. Finished to an exceptional standard throughout, this impressive property successfully combines the character and proportions of a traditional home with the comfort, quality and attention to detail associated with modern living.

The principal living room is a particularly welcoming space, blending traditional character with a stylish contemporary finish. An open fire provides an attractive focal point, complemented by feature wall panelling, carefully positioned wall lighting and bespoke shutters.

The kitchen forms the true heart of the home and has been comprehensively upgraded by the current vendor. Designed with both family life and entertaining in mind, it features a substantial central island with useful storage to both sides, providing an ideal setting for informal dining or entertaining. The kitchen benefits from granite work surfaces, Belfast sink, Rangemaster cooker and integrated fridge freezer and dishwasher. Underfloor heating provides an additional level of comfort to the dining area and utility room, while bespoke shutters continue the high-quality finish found throughout the property. With two large windows to the front of the property, it allows natural light to flood the space. Adjacent to the kitchen is a useful utility room, with fitted wall and base units for storage, plumbing and space for laundry facilities and sink.
